Human Rights: Commemorative Days and Event Anniversaries

Project Title	Human Rights: Commemorative Days and Event Anniversaries
Project Summary	Generate creative, informative, and engaging content for social media to honor important commemorative days, such as Human Rights Day, World Press Freedom Day, and International Day of Democracy for the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor.
Country	United States

Project Description

This is your opportunity to advance freedom and human rights around the world. Inspire budding activists, amplify advocates, and hold nefarious regimes responsible for their abuses by drafting content (e.g., tweets, graphics, and videos) to call attention to some of the most important issues of the day. This position allows you to be creative and hone your messaging and marketing skills.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Social media	management

Additional Information

Check out our socials: @StateDRL on Facebook and Twitter, plus @DRL_AS on Twitter. Learn more about commemorative days by visiting: https://www.un.org/en/sections/observances/international-days/

We use Canva, Moovly, HootSuite, Slack, and Zoom4Government.

The best part? The team is kind, supportive, diverse, inclusive, and always learning from each other. We look forward to welcoming you!

Language Requirements

None